Coats of arms and symbols lead us the way to knowledge

Several readers of my small column asked me today simultaneously and independently of each other, to take a stand on the meaning of coats of arms and flags. A TELEGRAM chat apparently resulted in many questions in regards to the different symbolisms, in particular which leader of the German Empire was liberal-minded towards his people and who was already visibly and obviously working/belonging to the malicious ones.

The symbols in particular play an extremely important role in the handling of the defense and conduct of a regions outward appearance trough the highest representatives. Many times "teachers" have claimed, that for example the pentagram is malicious, since it was adopted by certain hostile circles for their New World Order. For one, the context is wrong, moreover also unrelated, is the NWO admittedly being led by Satanists, but they use the inverted pentagram for their purposes. First one needs to understand, that the pentagram with the tip pointing upwards in the antiquity of our central European culture always symbolized the healed, upright human being. At the top the upright head (here the seat of the mind was located), the two arms and legs each as one aspect of the pentagon. 13 pentagrams embossed the first USA flag, in addition to 13 red and 13 white stripes, which represented the Founding States. Only in the centuries to come did the occupying powers behind the USA present the flag standing diagonally, no longer in balance, a sign that the upright man fell more and more victim to the Satanists, the head of the pentagrams bent towards the South, towards Satanism. Blue, white and red are the colors of this flag... nobility, innocence and blood. All these factors are consistent with the USA flag. But this flag should not continue to rob us of our attention. What is essential, is what happens in our homeland, what must happen in order...

But first I'd like to take the liberty of cleaning up one of the original symbols of our people, the Star of the David, which in former times was called a "Hexagon". The hexagon embodies in its essence the two merged trinities of man and woman. We recognize the same thing when we join the armanic runes "MAN" and "IR." In their perfection, you get the ALL- rune "HAGAL". Only in holy companionship, man and woman a perfect single entity! Why Judah claimed this symbol for himself is not clearly established. As early as 2014, our Jewish friends from Haifa attempted to find evidence of this in their libraries, but they failed due to the limitations of the satanic overseer of the Rothschilds, who control the country to the fullest extent.

Before we talk about our own, here you can see the coat of arms of Russia, that could not be more holy and above all future-oriented, especially regarding the shadow-less future, which is about to come. PRUSSIA and RUSSIA, the two heads of the ONE liberal-minded folk of this earth, the cradle of white humanity, carrying the one wish in its soul: to finally have defeated the LEVI(athan), the dragon of shadows.

In numerous depictions, the white rider even carries angel-wings, instead of a blue cape. The dragon lying defeated on the ground, just the way our Nibelungs have been telling us for many centuries about our pure Siegfried. Two parts of one folk - one soul feeling the same!

Our bright brother BenniLife reported in his new voice-post on TELEGRAM about a very essential circumstance, namely: If only PRUSSIA and RUSSIA would form a peaceful union, all others would followed this covenant. THIS IS TRULY SO!

But in order to be able to classify the individual territories of our homeland correctly, we need to look at the individual aristocratic houses of our German Empire. They all belonged more or less to an alliance, that included in total 26 states.

Since pre-medieval times, affiliations have been visibly presented on the outside of shields and castle coats of arms in Central Europe. This was to prevent people moving into the tribal area from other areas, causing trouble for themselves and the inhabitants of the respective area. One indicated, BEFORE any serious harm could done.

An example of this was the symbol of BURGFRIEDE, which showed two black hand prints on the castle gate. For the intruder this meant: "Here the rules of the owner apply. If an intruder is to approach in discord, it could sometimes cause serious injury or death to this intruder." Even today, the beadies of the Law of the Sea are well aware of this symbol.

But let us stick to the coats of arms of our homeland, the individual members, as well as the coat of arms of our former German Reich.

Both the imperial eagle and the also the royal coat of arms should be mentioned here. How essential the visual representation of such allegiances are, I already proved in my VOLKESBOTSCHAFT of 15. October 2019, which discusses the transformation of the Berlin eagle into a bear, covered up us a lion. A fool, the one, who'd think ill of this. One wonders to whom our holy city of Berlin belonged under the influence of the lion!?

The imperial eagle is mainly embossed of the three colours of the empire, black, white and red, it contains the head marking, the imperial crown with the role of the law and the imperial ribbon, marking of the affiliation to the nobility. The law is the highest priority in the Reich. The crown assigns itself the task of protecting the right of the people (e.g. the ban of the "civil death") at all costs. Both Friedrich Wilhelm I., as well as his successor, Emperor Wilhelm II, would have immediately given their lives to protect this promise to the people. To brand these noble forefathers of our people as "Nazis" or, as has occurred only recently, as "Nazi collaborators" should be rewarded with the death penalty! Those of press jackals expressing this kind of insult, will soon have to fear very much for their lives. Justice and prosperity, protection of the people, that is how the Empire stood firm in its shining light in the world. The Eagle looks to his own right, towards the justice that he carries within him.

Moreover, since the origins of the Deutschthum, the eagle has always embodied the AR, the core of the essence of freedom of our people, which is being so dearly missed. "Only in freedom can we prosper; only in freedom do we grow the wings of all progress," our Reich Chancellor Bismarck once said openly and honestly.

The imperial eagle of the German Empire bears in its heart the essential coat of arms of its former and present basis: the eagle of the Kingdom of Prussia. Kaiser Wilhelm II. was both King of Prussia, as well as the supreme confidant of the German Reich. Without the consent of the 25 others states, the king could not have been raised to the rank of emperor.

Please note the real self-determination within the empire: During a great part of history, the Pope in Rome (see Emperor Barbarossa, 1155) has always been the ultimate decision maker for the imperial coronation as supreme patron. The coronation of the two Friedrich Wilhelms was done by our own people!

The "Great Coat of Arms" of the German Empire combines again elementary criteria for presenting visibly the soul content, that is at the heart of the kingdom. On the one hand, we recognize again the free eagle at the top of the coat of arms, guarantor for clarification of the stance of the people of the Empire in regards to the Roman oppressor-Empire; the three colours of the Empire known to us, gold as standard of the divine (spiritual) wealth of the people; the mighty crown of the emperor and directly under it the motto of the awakened: "GOD WITH US", which is so often misunderstood. God has always been referred to as the power weaving WITHIN US Germans, and never to be found on the outside, at least in the oh so gray prehistoric times. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, THIS IS YOU ALONE, who was born into this world gifted with mindful consciousness.

Whoever is looking for Christ in the times before 2,000, searching for a man, who was crucified on the cross of the four elements of the by the Malignant Romans? Do you not see the non-sense, the book of lies, which Trump's always honored - the bible - is telling? Ask YOURSELF, what deceivers changed this bible in its worth knowing content? They, the most inferior animal-bastard rabble, made themselves to God's "Chosen People"... does it finally dawn on you? Trump uses the book for himself and his re-election, but to stand behind it, the clever chess master is not able to. But to tastefully present the truth to the people so close to the elections - too deep goes the UNeducating manipulation inoculated by Rome over thousands of years. But soon AWAKENING will be happening, in the United States of America also!

Two Germanic warriors hold a flag lance, on the left the Prussian Imperial Eagle, on the right the Brandenburg original eagle, who plays an important role in Prussia, which arose from the Mark Brandenburg and the former kingdom of Brandenburg-Prussia. Ask yourself, why Berlin has lost its imperial eagle, however Brandenburg-Prussia has always carried the same high content of the eagle within itself. You will find essential answers. Also note the two warriors holding lances. They are golden! The White Rider of Russia is not. Moreover, both warriors are equipped with light green robes. Green also in the Spirit. Remember the words of Sajaha, who familiarized us so well with the Greenlands.

We dealt with Brandenburg-Prussia, which calls a a slightly averted coat of arms of the imperial coat of arms his own. On the left a warrior in green, sparsely covered, with strong abdominal muscles and green in spirit and a knight on the right. ABILITY TO DEFEND is written all over the former Brandenburg-Prussia. In 1813 Napoleon reached for the empire Ask yourself why, then you're going to uncover essential aspects. DEFENSE = MAN. The Brandenburg Eagle wants to be free. In the center of the coat of arms the representation of the knightly royal house. This knows about its divine POWER. The invocation of "GOD WITH US" is not necessary for the Brandenburg-Prussians. They know WHO and WHAT they are, what primal power they assume, so they...

Not the whole Kingdom of Prussia is the original substance of the Holy German Empire, only this small spot, the former Mark Brandenburg, the Brandenburg-Prussia with its high vibes, in which at that time something very essential for today was created. 1618 was a very important year, which today marks the machinations of the world. Those who understand the connections, will understand Putin and Trump and will also be able to predict the coming. The aristocratic houses, that wanted to lead the empire to unity, mainly the Hohenzollern, agreed with the leaders of the eastern territories, the Silesians, Pomerania, also the people of Mecklenburg, on prosperity, peace and cooperation, even though each territory retained its core competences in law and constitution of its people. This displeased the enemy of life so much that a great war had to be provoked to divide the empire. This perpetrator recognized the enormous potential of the people already living in prosperity in our empire in those times. Below are the arms of the Eastern provinces:

Don't even think about it! No dragon, a griffin as the heraldic animal in the middle, decorates the Pomeranian Seal. On the left the eagle of Silesia. According to Grand Duke Kasimir's will, Silesia belongs to the Prussian Empire, for all eternity, so his wish, even today! On the right the coat of arms of Mecklenburg-Strelitz, the pure bull (think of the bull of the Istara) and again the golden griffin, both united under the crown.

East Prussia, Mecklenburg-Schwerin and West Prussia, from left to right. The eagle proves the ability to defend and chivalry, the powerful bull is a sign of gentleness and connection to the divine gods, who are sympathetic towards us and the vibrating forces of our race. Again and again the griffin as the heraldic animal of the ruling families of Mecklenburg, which is a symbol of vigilance, strength, and superiority. But the mythical hybrid also carries within itself parts of the lion! Attention on our part is now necessary. Why?

For centuries, manipulators of history have sold us the Berlin bear as such. Our research resulted in the unmasking of the Berlin Bear, as a Jewish lion and thus the taking over of the JAHUsalemers of the northern capital of our upcoming empire, which was founded by the Templars in 1237 as instructed by the goddess Ishtar. El Jahu, the Yahweh, the God of the "children of the devil", shows himself already, when you enter the city "Jahusalem" into Google. Instantly Jerusalem pops up and the coat of arms of this enclave of everything evil. In no way the people of this city are exclusively of malicious nature, if they eat purely plant foods, but those weaving forces the agents of the Devil - Rothschild weaving within are precisely that.

And now, the reader may wonder why the Grand Duke Friedrich Maik does business with these same Rothschilds? Because of a few documents? What do those matter to the upcoming leader, having to write history in the future? Since the year 944 my family, first mentioned in the family tree in the year 903, keeps a handwritten book about the events of the different aspects of life in their epochs. Much more needs to be discussed about the past, but I am currently unable to access the record. I'll be sure to convey the information to you at a given time.

The important thing to remember is: The coats of arms of our territories are clear and distinct in their components. They leave no questions unanswered and clearly show the interest of the controlling families behind them. So, who do I believe and trust when it comes to the question of planning the upcoming homeland?

As a last example, the kingdoms of Saxony and Bavaria shall be mentioned:

Lions, griffins, rhombuses. Do we need more of these clear signs of the takeovers, that happened at the time? The motto of the Saxon rhombus - crown is self-explanatory: "Providentiae Menor". But today, not a single Saxon can remember this motto. A slogan given by the leader is at the same time the law of the people. In memory of the war in 1806, regarding the defense of the country, this slogan is intended to remind us, to be constantly alert to the enemy. Lions as heraldic animals, griffins ... the attention had already ceased in 1806.

A hybrid being as heraldic animal implies the danger of the planned mixing of the individual races of the own people, just as Trump in his speech on July 4th emphasized the unity of Christian and Jewish religion. From the Vatican-Zionist-Satan worshiper's point of view, this unity may exist, but Jews and the original Christians are not to be equated with each other, neither in origin, nor in primeval nature and tradition. The one, the latter, originated from the cradle of mankind, the primordial mother Frya, the others are pure hybrids. In the animal world, hybrids are as dear to me as pure breeds, since they are always peaceful and of a loving nature.

Der Sieg dem Heil.
